

"Slightly Spooky Stories" at Storytime on October 31.

Manager's Report

Fall library programs went into high gear in October. Youth programs included K-2 Book Adventures and the Early Release Day "Science Zone". Teens held their annual "Murder Mystery Night," with over 70 teens attending. For adults, the Book Notes Concerts returned with pianist John Nilsen. Classes in Spanish and card making began, and talks were held on the Saturn V rocket, as well as on "How to Write a Novel in 30 Days".

The September Statistical Report showed a 7% increase in Adult DVD circulation. The meeting rooms saw significant use, with a 62% increase over last year. Digital loans were strong at a 20% increase in circulation over the same time last year.

Construction began on "Electric Avenue." Portland General Electric is installing a five vehicle electric-charging hub in the library's parking lot.

Attached is the October edition of the library's newsletter, "Check Out," which lists programs and events at the library in October.

“Electric Avenue” coming to the library

Construction is underway for an “Electric Avenue” at the Wilsonville Public Library.

Electric-utility provider Portland General Electric (PGE) is installing an “Electric Avenue” five-vehicle electric-charging hub at the library.

The site, near the intersection of Wilsonville Road and Memorial Drive, will provide electric car owners with a safe, visible charging station that is accessible around the clock and conveniently located near restaurants, shops, Memorial Park and the Library.

The hub, with one 6.7 kW Level 2 dispenser and four 50 kW DC Fast Charge stations, is being constructed, operated, inspected, repaired and maintained by PGE. The City is responsible for the care and maintenance of the parking area.

For more information, call the City at 503-682-1011 or visit the City’s website:
