Volunteers Needed for City Boards and Commission Positions

The City of Wilsonville has a total of 11 openings on various boards and commissions that become available starting January 2017. Volunteers who serve on the City's committees make a valuable contribution towards improving the community and local government's ability to serve residents, businesses and visitors.

Mayor Tim Knapp states, "We are looking for community members who desire taking on leadership roles and who are passionate about retaining the high quality of life we currently enjoy in Wilsonville."

Of the 11 open positions, 10 are currently filled by board and commission members who are eligible for reappointment but have terms that expire at the end of the year. The open positions include:

- One position for a three-year term on the Budget Committee
- Seven positions for two-year terms on the Development Review Board
- Two positions for four-year terms on the Parks and Recreation Advisory Board
- One position for a four-year term on the Planning Commission

The deadline for current members seeking reappointment and new community members seeking to apply for an open position is Friday, Nov. 1, at 4:30 p.m.

For more information on volunteer service on City boards, please contact Sandra King, City Recorder, at City Hall, 29799 SW Town Center Loop East, Wilsonville, OR 97070; 503-570-1506; king@ci.wilsonville.or.us. Residents Rate Highly City Services and Quality of Community; Express Concern about Traffic, Growth and Housing Costs

Findings from the recently completed National Citizen Survey™ (NCS) of Wilsonville were presented at the September 19 meeting of the Wilsonville City Council by Ashley Perez de Tejada, Survey Consultant for the NRC based in Boulder, Colorado. The 2016 survey is the third statistically-valid questionnaire conducted for the community over the past six years, providing the opinions of a representative sample of 536 residents of Wilsonville. The local survey also compares current results with results from over 500 communities across the U.S.

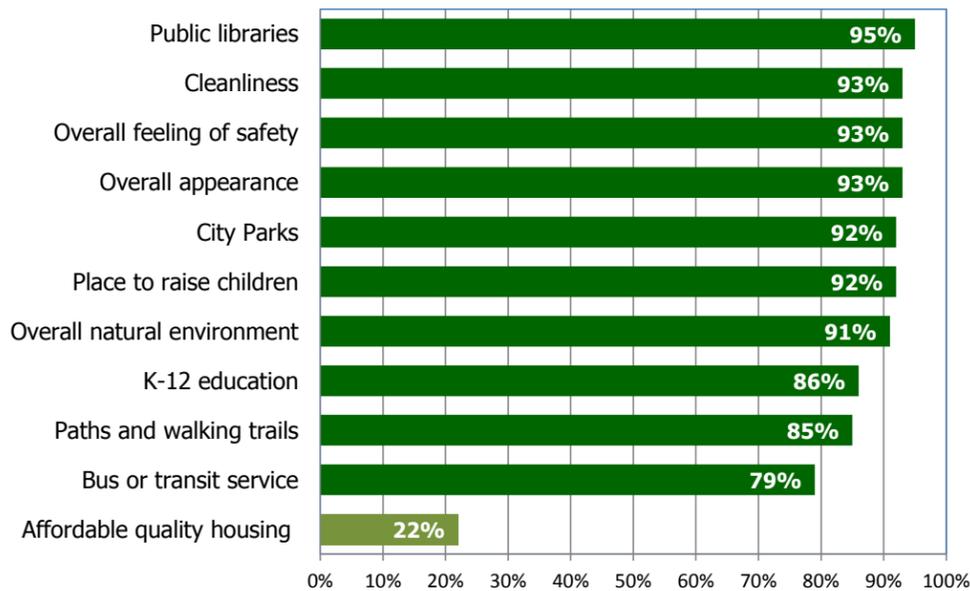

The report finds, "In the case of Wilsonville, 93% rated the City as an excellent or good place to live." The report continues, "About 9 in 10 respondents gave positive ratings to Wilsonville as a place to raise children and to the overall appearance of the City. These ratings were higher than the national benchmark, along with the rating for Wilsonville's overall image (84% excellent or good)."

Other notable findings from the recent survey include:

- Eight in 10 respondents thought highly of the customer service provided by City employees.
- About six in 10 respondents gave excellent or good ratings to the overall direction of City government, the City welcoming citizen involvement, confidence in Wilsonville government and acting in the best interest of the community.

When asked "What do you think is the biggest priority facing the City of Wilsonville over the next five years," 38% of respondents identified traffic, roads and transportation, 24% identified planning growth and expansion and 18% identified housing and affordability as a top priority.

Regarding healthy living, 69% of the respondents felt that improving sidewalks and bike lanes and 62% felt increasing recreational opportunities and programs are either very important or essential.

Sampling of 2016 Community Survey results where the percentage of residents rated each category as either excellent or good and that are higher (dark green) or lower (light green) than national benchmarks as determined by the National Research Center.

The complete survey, along with open-ended responses from community members, is available at www.ci.wilsonville.or.us/CommunitySurvey.

Mayor's Message:

Ballot Measures Deserve Thoughtful Consideration

While the races for U.S. President and even the Clackamas County Commission are receiving plenty of attention, there are a number of local and regional ballot measures that deserve careful review by voters at next month's general election.

I encourage Wilsonville residents to take the time to study the proposed ballot measures that have been advanced by your elected officials for voters' consideration. The Voters' Pamphlet will have details on each of the following measures that appear on the ballots of Wilsonville voters:

See page 7 for a summary of the ballot measures.

- City of Wilsonville Measure 3-485: Authorizes General Obligation Bonds for Recreation and Aquatic Center
- City of Wilsonville Measure 3-486: Prohibits Certain Licensed or Regulated Medical and Recreational Marijuana Facilities
- Clackamas County Measure 3-509: Temporary 6-Cent Per Gallon Vehicle Fuel Tax
- Tualatin Soil & Water Conservation District (Washington County) Measure 34-269: Permanent tax rate limit
- Metro Measure 26-178: Renews Local Option Levy; Protects Natural Areas, Water Quality, Fish

Each of these measures is responsive to issues of concern that community members have expressed over time in open, public processes. It is now time for the whole community to weigh-in.

In a democracy, voting is an important civic duty to ensure that your voice is heard in our political system. While the election date is Tuesday, Nov. 8, mail-in ballots are sent to voters in mid-October; the Wilsonville Public

The Wilsonville Public Library is an official Ballot Drop Site—ballots may be deposited up until 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 8, Election Day.

Library is a ballot drop-off site. We look forward to seeing the results on these locally significant issues.

Help Plan Boones Ferry Road to Brown Road Connector Corridor

The City of Wilsonville is holding an open house on the proposed Boones Ferry Road to Brown Road connector roadway on Wednesday, Oct. 26, 5–6:30 p.m., at Wilsonville City Hall, 29799 SW Town Center Loop East. The open house provides community members the opportunity to meet with the project team, review potential road designs and provide feedback on the proposed route now being planned and designed.

This project seeks to help alleviate motor-vehicle congestion on Wilsonville Road west of I-5, improve Wilsonville's growing transportation network, create a corridor that is safe for all travel modes, provide pedestrians and bicyclists improved connectivity, extend the Ice Age Tonquin Trail, minimize environmental impacts on Arrowhead creek and local riparian areas and support the local economy and businesses by preserving freight access to existing and new industrial properties.

To learn more about open house and the proposed roadway, go online to BoonesFerryToBrownRoad.org, or contact Steve Adams, Development Engineering Manager, at 503-570-1566; adams@ci.wilsonville.or.us.

Call if You Can, Text if You Can't When Reporting an Emergency

In August, Clackamas County Department of Communications announced that 911 dispatchers throughout much of the Portland region and northwest Oregon can now receive text messages from the public. While 911 dispatchers still prefer calls, hence the slogan "Call if You Can, Text When You Can't" the new service is designed to promote the use of text messaging when calling 911 is not a safe or possible method of reporting an emergency.

Texting 911 is intended to benefit people that may not be able to speak due to an emergency such as a home invasion or abusive partner, as well as individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing, or have limited speech capabilities.

Texting should ONLY be used when the person contacting 911 is unable to make a voice call since phone calls allow 911 dispatchers to gather critical information and dispatch emergency responders more quickly.

The County wants users of the texting option to know about a few tips to using the new system which include:

- Do not include emoji pictures or video.
- The service is only to be used when the person reporting an emergency is not able to call 911.
- The service, which is not yet available statewide, is currently functioning in the following Oregon and SW Washington counties: Clatsop, Clackamas; Columbia, Clark, North Marion, Multnomah and Washington.
- If in an area where 911 text services are not available, callers should receive a "bounceback" message that says text-to-911 is NOT available in that area.
- Currently the service only accepts written words, but in the future the system is expected to be able to accept pictures and videos.
- The send text to 911 does not work while roaming.
- There is no cost to use the service.

Beware of Solicitors Not Wearing City Badge

In August, a 12-year-old boy was home alone when an unknown person entered the boy's Courtside neighborhood home. Startled, the boy called his mother, who called 911. Police responded to the call where they apprehended an illegal door-to-door magazine sales person who later confessed to two burglaries in Wilsonville and was lodged at Clackamas County Jail on three counts of first-degree burglary.

To prevent criminals from illegal solicitation, the City of Wilsonville requires all adult door-to-door solicitors to register with the City, work for a company with a Business License, pass a criminal background check and wear a City-issued solicitor badge. These requirements apply to all solicitors who are 16 and over, but does not apply to children.

The City of Wilsonville requires all adult door-to-door solicitors to ... wear a City-issued solicitor badge.

company with a Business License, pass a criminal background check and wear a City-issued solicitor badge. These requirements apply to all solicitors who are 16 and over, but does not apply to children.

Unfortunately, not all solicitors obtain the proper documentation and so residents should be cautious when answering the door and ask to see the solicitor's City-issued badge which must be worn in plain sight. If the solicitor is not wearing the required badge, insist on seeing the badge before continuing.

Approved solicitors are required to:

- Respect "no soliciting" signs at all times
- Refrain from placing or taping flyers or pamphlets to cars or homes
- Not solicit before 9 am or after 8 pm.
- Show respect to the persons they solicit

Violation of any of these requirements can result in having a solicitor's permit revoked.

If someone is handing out flyers or soliciting without a badge, call the Police non-emergency number at 503-655-8211.

For more information or to check on a solicitor, contact Shelly Marcotte, Accounting Specialist, at 503-570-1586; marcotte@ci.wilsonville.or.us.

Chief's Corner: Parking Regulations

As Wilsonville continues to grow, parking becomes more of an issue. In June, I wrote about traffic, specifically running red lights and blocking intersections. This month I would like to focus on the issue of parking.

Police Chief Jeff Smith

Illegal parking impacts the safety, flow of traffic and quality of life in Wilsonville. Now is a good time to remind residents about where, when and how they can park on a public street.

As you may know, Wilsonville conforms to state parking laws and has additional local parking regulations as well.

Some of the more common parking violations our officers observe include illegal parking in the following locations:

- On a sidewalk, crosswalk, bicycle lane or path.
- In front of or blocking a public or private driveway.
- Within 10 feet of a fire hydrant.
- Within 20 feet of a marked or unmarked crosswalk at an intersection.
- Within 50 feet of a traffic signal or sign if your vehicle hides the signal or sign from view.
- Within 12 feet of a mailbox.
- On the road side of any parked vehicle (double parking).
- On the wrong side of the street or not parallel to the roadway.
- In an alley for reasons other than unloading and for more than 30 minutes.
- On any street for more than 72 hours.
- Parking large commercial trucks, RV's and trailers with a gross vehicle weight of more than 8,000 pounds, truck trailer, motor bus, recreational vehicle or utility trailer on a public street between the hours of 9 p.m. and 7 a.m. in front of or adjacent to a residence, motel, apartment, hotel or other sleeping accommodation.

No parking signs may or may not identify illegal parking areas.

If you have any questions about Wilsonville's parking requirements please refer to the city's website or contact the Code Enforcement office at 503-570-1572. To report a parking violation call the Police Department's non-emergency dispatch number, 503-655-8211.

Hopefully, through improved awareness and education, we can reduce the number of illegally parked vehicles that impede the flow of travel and can pose safety risks to our community.

Back to School Safety Reminders

As students head back to class and the weather begins to change, remember to slow down and watch out for all road users, especially around schools. Also remember that EVERY intersection is a crosswalk, therefore bicyclists and drivers must stop and stay stopped for people waiting to cross the street.

Remember to be extra careful at all intersections whether you're driving, walking, rolling in a wheelchair or pedaling a bike.

Night-Time Closure of Barber Bridge Starts Mid-October Ends Mid-December

As part of the now-underway Kinsman Road extension project that connects Barber Street and Boeckman Road just east of the Villebois neighborhood, a nighttime closure of the Barber Bridge, 9 pm–6 am, is planned to begin in mid-October and last until approximately mid-December.

During the regular commuting hours, at least one travel lane in each direction on the bridge will remain open. A detour route is established that uses Wilsonville and Brown Road to get around the closed bridge throughout the night. To see a map of the detour route visit www.ci.wilsonville.or.us/RoadConstruction.

The closure is needed to install a 66-inch water pipeline through the intersection for the Willamette Water Supply Program—a partnership between Tualatin Valley Water District and the City of Hillsboro to develop the mid-Willamette River as an additional water supply.

The full road project, scheduled for completion by June 2018, provides an additional north-south roadway connection through Wilsonville, linking the western residential neighborhoods with the City's industrial employment areas.

Next spring and summer the project also includes construction of a roundabout at the north end of the project where the extension of Kinsman Road and Boeckman Road are planned to intersect. This stage of the project requires a three-month closure of Boeckman Road to build a new concrete roundabout.

The Great Oregon ShakeOut - Annual Statewide Earthquake Drill Set For Oct. 20

At 10:20 am on Thursday, Oct. 20, thousands of Oregonians are planning to “Drop, Cover, and Hold On” in The Great Oregon ShakeOut, the state’s largest earthquake drill ever. Everyone is encouraged to participate in the drill wherever you are at 10:20 a.m. on Oct. 20.

The Great Oregon ShakeOut Earthquake Drill
• Thurs, Oct 20, 10:20 am
 Everyone is encouraged to participate wherever you are

Major earthquakes may happen anywhere you live, work, or travel. The ShakeOut is our chance to practice how to protect ourselves and for everyone to become more prepared. The goal is to prevent a major earthquake from becoming a catastrophe for you, your family, your organization and your community. Why is a “Drop, Cover, and Hold On” drill important? To respond quickly you must practice often. You may only have seconds to protect yourself in an earthquake before strong shaking knocks you down, or something falls on you. Millions of people worldwide have participated in Great ShakeOut Earthquake Drills since 2008. The Great Oregon ShakeOut is held on the third Thursday of October each year. Everyone can participate! Individuals, families, businesses, schools, colleges, government agencies and organizations are all invited. Here are simple things individuals and families can do to participate in the ShakeOut. Instructions and resources can be found at shakeout.org/oregon/.

- Plan Your Drill:
- Register at ShakeOut.org/oregon/register to be counted as participating and get email updates.
 - Download a Drill Broadcast recording from ShakeOut.org/oregon/drill/broadcast.
 - Have a “Drop, Cover and Hold On” drill at 10:20 am on Oct. 20.
 - Discuss what you learned and make improvements

- Get Prepared for Earthquakes:
- Do a “hazard hunt” for items that might fall during earthquakes and secure them.
 - Create a personal or family disaster plan.
 - Organize or refresh emergency supply kits.
 - Identify and correct home structure issues.

Wilsonville’s Bee Stewards Program to Restore Bumblebee Habitat

A little more than three years ago in a north Wilsonville parking lot an estimated 50,000 bumblebees died suddenly. The bee deaths were caused by improperly applied neonicotinoid-based pesticides by a private, licensed commercial pesticide operator that was subsequently fined for violations of the Oregon Pesticide Control Law. Later the Oregon Department of Agriculture adopted permanent restrictions on the use of certain “neonic” pesticide products for use on specific kinds of flowering trees, including linden, basswood and Tilia species.

The incident sparked a national conversation about bee health and pesticide use. Photos of thousands of bees littering the asphalt were featured on the cover of Time magazine, in the LA Times, and covered in The Huffington Post (to mention a few), and brought the previously arcane topic of neonicotinoid pesticide use into millions of American households. The City’s response was swift and creative, but unfortunately even today the name “Wilsonville” is linked to bumblebee demise.

This incident, however, provides Wilsonville an opportunity to exercise national leadership in demonstrating ways to assist pollinators within urban environments. In order to exercise leadership and to promote local bee health, the City is funding and implementing a new “Bee Stewards” program that integrates habitat creation/enhancement, community education and outreach and Integrated Pest Management (IPM) to promote pollinator health on public and private lands within Wilsonville.

In cooperation with the Northwest Center for Alternatives to Pesticides, the West Linn-Wilsonville School District, and other partners, the program combines each agency’s strengths to increase pollinator habitat and safeguard pollinator health in the City. Several species of bees that were once common in the metro area, such as the Western bumblebee, may be directly assisted by this project. The Xerces Society, a leader in pollinator conservation, has documented that flower-rich native plant landscapes support greater biodiversity, not only for pollinators, but also other beneficial insects, songbirds and small mammals.

To date, the “Bee Stewards” program has received a combined $58,000 in funding from the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation and the Wilsonville-Metro Community Enhancement Program. In addition, the City has applied for funding from Metro’s Nature in Neighborhoods Program.

The Bee Stewards program, which kicks off this fall, is expected to increase a sense of place, promote environmental stewardship and restore community pride in Wilsonville as a bee-friendly community. The program includes establishment of pollinator gardens on public lands and in private yards to not only beautify Wilsonville, but also help the City assume a regional and national role as an urban leader in pollinator conservation and stewardship.

For more information about the program, contact Kerry Rappold, Natural Resource Manager at 503-570-1570; rappold@ci.wilsonville.or.us.

World of Speed Offers Students Automotive Technology Courses

This fall marks the return of World of Speed Motorsport Museum’s Automotive Learning Center program, in partnership with Clackamas Community College and local school districts.

This year the program is anticipating doubling the number of participants in the program to serve over 100 students. Students come from Canby, Newberg, North Marion, Sherwood, Tualatin, West Linn, and Wilsonville schools.

The museum is excited to provide students with access to educational opportunities that otherwise might not be available. The classes also provide valuable CTE (career technical education) experiences and a chance to earn high school and college credit.

This automotive technology program is just one education program the World of Speed offers. This school year, the museum expects to welcome more students for fun field trips that include a tour and hands-on STEAM activities. Check out their website for Adult education opportunities and also our Halloween and Holiday family fun days. For more information visit at WorldofSpeed.org.

City Seeks Task Force Members for French Prairie Bridge Project

City of Wilsonville Measure 3-485: Authorizes General Obligation Bonds for Recreation and Aquatic Center

Caption

Authorizes General Obligation Bonds for Wilsonville Recreation and Aquatic Center

Question

Shall Wilsonville be authorized to issue up to $35,000,000 of general obligation bonds for a Community Recreation and Aquatic Center? If the bonds are approved, they will be payable from taxes on property or property ownership that are not subject to the limitations of Sections 11 and 11b, Article XI of the Oregon Constitution.

Summary

This Measure would authorize the City to issue up to $35 million of general obligation bonds to pay for capital costs to provide a Community Recreation and Aquatic Center ("Center"), including costs to acquire property and construct the Center, parking lot and related amenities, and finance issuance costs. The primary purpose of the Center is to provide community event space, aquatic, athletic, fitness, and recreational facilities. A "yes" vote approves the Measure; a "no" vote rejects the Measure.

This Measure will result in a tax increase by an estimated $0.59 per $1,000 of assessed value per year; for example: approximately $177 per year on a home assessed at $300,000, or $14.75 per month.

Center usage will require payment of a user or membership fee. Membership and user fees for the Center have not been determined but Wilsonville residents will pay a reduced fee.

City of Wilsonville Measure 3-486: Prohibits Certain Licensed or Regulated Medical and Recreational Marijuana Facilities

Caption

Prohibits Certain Licensed or Regulated Medical and Recreational Marijuana Facilities

Question

Shall Wilsonville continue to prohibit medical marijuana processors, medical marijuana dispensaries, recreational marijuana producers, processors, wholesalers, and retailers in Wilsonville?

Summary

This measure would authorize the City to continue its current ban on medical marijuana processing sites, medical marijuana dispensaries, recreational marijuana producers, recreational marijuana processors, recreational marijuana wholesalers, and recreational marijuana retailers. Processors under Wilsonville's Code also include marijuana testing facilities, which are also currently banned.

Personal use and growing of marijuana, in accordance with state law, will continue to be allowed in Wilsonville and is not restricted by this Measure.

A "yes" vote approves the Measure, and authorizes the City to continue to prohibit the above listed marijuana businesses from being located in Wilsonville.

A "no" vote rejects the Measure, and marijuana businesses would be permitted to operate in Wilsonville, subject to the provisions of Oregon law, including locally imposed time, place, and manner regulations, and Oregon Liquor Control Commission and Oregon Health Authority licensure and regulations.

Clackamas County Measure 3-509: Temporary 6-Cent Per Gallon Vehicle Fuel Tax

Caption

Temporary 6-Cent Per Gallon Vehicle Fuel Tax

Question

Shall Clackamas County adopt a seven-year, 6-cent-per-gallon motor vehicle fuel tax dedicated to road maintenance projects?

Summary

The measure imposes a temporary 6-cent-per-gallon tax on motor vehicle fuel sales within Clackamas County. The tax revenues must be used as required by the Oregon Constitution for construction, reconstruction, improvement, repair, maintenance, operation and use of public roads and streets within the county. The tax is estimated to raise approximately $9 million per year.

The County will use 60 percent of the net revenue for 47 specific County road paving and safety projects. A list of county projects and their estimated costs can be found at <http://theroadahead.us/>.

The remaining 40 percent of net revenues will be distributed semi-annually to the cities in Clackamas County to use for their own transportation projects. Distribution to cities will be based proportionately on population within Clackamas County using figures provided annually by Portland State University.

The tax is implemented in March 2017 and will expire seven years after the implementation date. The County will adopt an ordinance for the administration of the motor vehicle fuel tax, and establish and implement licensing requirements.

Metro Measure 26-178: Renews Local Option Levy; Protects Natural Areas, Water Quality, Fish

Caption

Renews local option levy; protects natural areas, water quality, fish

Question

Shall Metro protect water quality, fish, natural areas, parks; renew 5-year operating levy, 9.6¢ per $1,000 assessed value, beginning 2018? This measure renews current local option taxes.

Summary

This levy does not increase taxes. It continues the same rate previously approved by voters. This levy protects water quality, restores fish and wildlife habitat and connects people with nature across 17,000 acres of parks, trails and natural areas. About half the levy funding goes toward restoring natural areas acquired over two decades and two voter-approved bond measures. The other half of the money helps connect people with nature by improving Metro parks and natural areas, providing nature education programming and grants for community nature projects.

Tualatin Soil & Water Conservation District (Washington County) Measure 34-269: Permanent tax rate limit

Caption

Permanent tax rate limit

Question

Shall District adopt permanent rate limit authorizing levy of up to $0.09 per $1,000 assessed value, beginning fiscal year 2017-18?

Summary

Tualatin Soil and Water Conservation District serves all of Washington County. District services promote voluntary efforts to improve water quality, protect water supply from pesticides, prevent soil erosion, support forest health, enhance fish/wildlife habitat, control invasive/noxious weeds, restore streams and conserve natural areas. The District does not make or enforce regulations. The District is currently funded through short-term grants or agreements. This request resulted from a multi-year outreach initiative by the District to assess unmet natural resource needs. The District asks voters to approve a permanent rate limit under which the maximum amount the District can levy is $0.09 per $1,000 assessed value. This rate by law cannot be raised. If the maximum amount is levied, it will cost no more than $18 per year on a property valued at $200,000. The revenue raised will allow the District to provide education, technical assistance, and project funding to urban and rural residents, farmers, foresters, business owners, public schools, and public agencies. District financial reports are audited annually and available to the public.

Library Shows Movies in Spanish to Reach More Community Members

This summer the library tried something new by showing movies in Spanish.

What did the program look like? Every Friday this summer the library showed a fun family movie like Inside Out or Zootopia. The first show was in English, with subtitles (often in English); the second show was in Spanish (with English subtitles).

Who came? All sorts of people attended both shows. At the Spanish-language movies, the audience included native Spanish speakers (who enjoyed catching all the fast-paced jokes in their language of fluency), and also some native English-speaking families whose kids participate in Spanish-immersion programs at school.

Why did the library host this program? The library seeks to provide a welcoming environment for all community members. Showing movies in different languages makes a variety of families feel welcome. The movies also bring people in who may never have visited before, giving them the opportunity to learn about the other services, including skill development for adults, programs for families and literacy support for kids.

Research shows that when parents talk to their kids in their strongest language, the adults naturally use the most fluent and sophisticated language structures. This helps the language centers in kids' brains develop, so that they are better at speaking and reading both in their native language and also in other languages they learn. In addition, movies with subtitles supports language-learning and reading skills.

Outreach Librarian Deborah Gitlitz signing kids up for the Summer Reading program.

Census estimates show that about 14% of Wilsonville's population is Hispanic. While they may have fluency in Spanish, English, or other languages, some are still learning English, which isn't something that happens all at once. Meanwhile, Spanish-immersion students and others in our community wish to learn Spanish. Movies in Spanish, with subtitles, meet many needs.

The Library staff values diversity and is committed to doing their best to help all community members be better connected to their community and to view the Library as an asset for everyone.
