MARCH 2024

Little win of the night

Wilsonville Police assisted Oregon State Police (OSP) early in March. OSP troopers was readying to contact the driver of vehicle they'd pulled over, when he took off, crashed into several cars, and then maneuvered onto I-5, headed the wrong direction. Wilsonville Police officers responded quickly with assistance. Deputies located the suspect's vehicle crashed, and OSP troopers found the suspect a short distance away. We later learned the vehicle has been associated with several cases open in Portland. Hats off to deputies M. Wagner, T. Wolf, S. Bowman, and K9 units S. Krause and B. Lee.

Public Works moved out and the Police Department will be undergoing a remodel

During February and March, Public Works vacated 30000 SW Town Center Loop E. The building's space was assessed through collaborative meetings with City, Police, and Architects. A renovation will begin soon to best meet the immediate needs of our Wilsonville Police department.

Look for us to be operating "business as usual" sometime during the Summer—without construction soot and noise! Until then, thank you for your patience.

Overall, March was a low-key month

Looking back over the month of March and the types of crime Wilsonville Police responded to, data showed most of what filtered through the police department was civil in nature—parking and neighborhood complaints, and general assistance needed. The sun was starting to flirt with us and the City's schools went on Spring Break.
