The Oregon Structural Specialty Code Section 111 allows the Building Official to issue a permit for temporary occupancy. Such permits are limited to 60 days in length. Temporary occupancy extensions may be granted for demonstrated cause. The issuance of a temporary occupancy is a discretionary act of the Building Official. There is no implied guarantee of an extension. Any impacts to adjacent neighbors or to the public that result from issuance of the temporary permit (ex: traffic or noise) must be satisfactorily addressed by the applicant. Failure to satisfactorily address issues that arise, may lead to termination of the temporary occupancy permit.

Each application for an extension must be accompanied by a written summary of the progress made to date and the reason why additional time is necessary. The Building Division does not imply or guarantee that a TCO extension will be granted or approved. The applicant shall proceed in good faith and assumes all risk with temporary occupancy.

- 5. TCO Approval - TCO applications will only be approved by the Building Official upon completion of a blue card, and upon affirmative recommendation from the lead building inspector.
- 6. Illegal Occupancy - Any occupancy of a building, structure, or portion thereof without a valid Certificate of Occupancy or Temporary Certificate of Occupancy shall be illegal.
