Library Director Retires

Library Director Pat Duke is set to retire on October 1 after 25 years at the Wilsonville Public Library, with 17 years as the Library Director. In retirement, he looks forward to traveling with his wife, spending more time with his family, and taking care of some long-overdue home repairs.

More than anything, Pat will miss day-to-day interaction with Library staff and volunteers. "The library staff is an amazing group who are smart, fun, and focused on serving the community. I am so impressed by all of them," he said.

We will deeply miss Pat, and wish him the best!

Youth Programs Return Sept. 7

Weekly children's programs return in September in a virtual format as staff prepare for resuming in-person programs in October.

Starting September 7, Toddler & Baby Time return to Zoom and YouTube with Youth Librarians Jo and Brad on Tuesday mornings at 10:30 a.m.

Family Storytime returns to Zoom and YouTube with our Youth Services staff on Thursday mornings at 10:30 a.m. starting September 9.

Teen programs feature 'lounge nights' on the second Friday of the month at 7 pm. We are hoping to be able to shift these programs to a hybrid (virtual and in-person) state. Visit our website for the latest information.

September Is Banned Books Month

Throughout September, we will have displays and activities in the library highlighting this form of censorship.

Learn about books that have been removed or challenged in schools and libraries in the United States every year. Some you might agree with, and others will surprise you.
