Winter Reading Challenge Starts Jan. 2

This winter, read books, track the number of books you read, and discover new library services with our all ages Winter Reading Challenge.

Starting Jan. 2, track your reading through the online app Beanstack or challenge yourself with our Bingo game board (available at the library and on our website).

Complete the Bingo and reading challenges and get entered into a fun prize drawing! Last day to turn in entries is Feb. 28.

Questions? Call the Library at 503-682-2744 or come see us at the Circulation Desk.

Staff Picks!

Check out these staff recommended titles for kids and teens

Farmhouse

by Sophie Blackall

Lilting verses and charmingly beautiful illustrations reveal the loving mark 12 children made on their home, their farmhouse.

The Sheep, the Rooster, and the Duck

by Matt Phelan

In 1783, three unlikely superheroes-- a sheep, a rooster and a duck— finds themselves caught up in a sinister plot. Will they be able to save Benjamin Franklin and the world in time?

The Ogress and the Orphans

by Kelly Barnhill

A once lovely town, Stone-in-the-Glen, blames all its troubles on the newcomer to their town, an ogress. But is the ogress really as terrible as the townspeople fear?
