Election Fun at the Library

It looks to be an exciting election this year, for adults and youth. Who will you vote for?

Adults can “Meet the Candidates” (Clackamas County commissioners) on Thursday, October 13, at 7 pm at the library. Ask the Chair candidates questions, learn about some of the statewide ballot measures, and experience a debate between the two Councillor candidates

The ballot boxes will be available starting October 19 for the General Election and our “Picture Book Presidents” election.

Vote for your candidate (The Cat in the Hat, Max from Where the Wild Things Are, or write-in). No age limit for voters, but only one ballot per voter. It's your civic duty!

For more information, call the library at 503-682-2744 or visit the library website:

Día de Muertos: Historias y Canciones Indígenas de México / Day of the Dead: Indigenous Stories and Songs of Mexico
Nuestro Canto
October 22, Saturday, 1-2pm

Grupos Indígenas de Mexico han ido creando sus historias y musica por muchos años. Nuestro Canto ha juntado la música de los Nahuas, Purépechas, Serus, Mayas y Zapotecos en su forma y lenguaje original, y con instrumentos ancestrales. Este programa combina historias y canciones indígenas sobre el Día de los Muertos. Nuestro Canto les enseñará al público sobre la historia de esta celebración.
